proved and several communications were disposed of, in-

Judge E. P. McNeil, stating that as the sitting of the district court had to be postponed to Tuesday, June 8th, it would be necessary either to defer the consideration of appeals against the assessment until that date

or have the appeals heard at MacLeod at my earlier date.

Both letters were ordered filed.

Rev. W. H. Irwin, formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Blairmore, is expected shortly to be transferred to a new field of labor

in this province.

Regarding his proposed departure

the Athabasca “Now” says:

“Many will regret

the departure of Mr. Irwin.

While some have dissentient

from his setting of old truths as detrimental to faith; on the other hand, others

have been attracted to the church

by his originality.

He is never uninteresting,

and the boldness of some of his views make him a marked man in the discussion of religious and social topics.”

Patriotic Meeting

About five hundred people turned out on Saturday evening last at the opera house to hear Hon. R. B. Bennett's popular

address on “Patriotism.”

Late in the evening the idea

struck the prominent Passenger that the presence of

Bennett in The Park at such a period afforded an exceptional opportunity to those who pride in the ability of Mr. Bennett to explain matters of greatest moment and importance to us

as a nation. Sharp at 7.30 crowds began to gather at the spacious assembly room in response to short notice given by way of notices and telephone dispatches.

The chair was occupied by

Acting-Mayor Beebe, who in a few well chosen words introduced Mr. Bennett. We regret that space will not permit us to give a detailed report of the address, which throughout was both brilliant and instructive. It dwelt at length upon the example of real patriotism

established by the little country of Belgium, and fitly dedicated to him the duty to every person of Belgian descent or nationality.

This was the first opportunity

most of our people have had to hear Alberta's greatest platform speaker, and needless to say all were pleased with his oration.

On behalf of the audience

Mr. L. H. Putnam moved a vote of thanks to the Hon. Mr.

Bennett, who had so kindly consented to address the meeting. Mr. Gillis supported the motion, to which the audience

responded unanimously.

Owing to the length of the occupied in the address the musical part of the program

had to be confined to an appropriate song rendered by

Mr. W. Shew, mine inspector and a couple of national hymns.

This was the second meeting of the year, and the board and the audience

will be the following improvements:

Brewery building and complete

equipment of the Blairmore

Prisoners From Submarines

The Germans maintain that orders are not merely an excuse, but a justification for all acts of terrorism and for the wholesale sacrifice of innocent life. That is a view wholly incompatible with the principles of justice and with wholly repugnant to the teachings of any law which is founded, as England's is, on the fundamental principles of that of morality. Whatever may be the view of German justificators, the law of war and the rule of law that superior orders are no justification for the acts of men who commit a crime. If he shoots a man and has no better defense, he is liable to be tried and liable to be hanged. Responsible opinion in this country would not, however, demand that he should be brought to trial for these acts—or that they should be treated with leniency. London Times.

H. G. Wells

Wells' article. The showing of the British and Indian Armies in India has, in fact, been as poor as the one he has admirably. The elementary schools have produced much criticism and intelligent abundance; they have swamped the recruiting offices and all our responsible men in the public schools, though they have had no patriotic thought, have had no equal educational or mental vigor. We must have schools that will impart the spirit of enthusiasm and understanding of France, India and Russia, and of the great world outside. The Indian elementary schools alive with criticism and intelligent cast.

ing like a dog."

A Supreme Sacrifice

How a Belgian Officer Risked Death
to Save a Soldier

Here is the story of a Belgian driver who appeared in the London Daily Mail:

"I was in Antwerp when the surrounding trenches, but they load my lorry too heavy, and I dropped a mine under the road, it broke the axle, so we pushed as much ammunition as possible into the lorry to the trenches, with a communication trench between, each, and the lorry was then driven to the second owing to the enemy having found the accurate range of our gun. The lorry was hit and the crew of our best friends who were laid low. We were unable to get back, as all could not reach the communication trench, so I started making my way to us on his hands and knees, falling exhausted at every step, but I reached the trench in time quite close to me, unable to stand it made a dash for the wounded man, who had again dropped after a horrible fall.

He reached him, too, and singlehanded on his back like a baby, then I heard a bullet enter the man's body round the waist, so that now he was leaning on me, and I carried him, leaving his own back as a target for the enemy. But he did not die, but died safely."

The Drager Taguati press a letter from a man who has been captured by the Russians, who tells of the great use a knowledge of Esperanto has been to him. He writes: "My wife when her own language failed her, he was able to speak to me in Esperanto. His letter is dated Jan. 1, 1917, and reads: 'I have come into the hands of the Russians,' he writes, 'I first became of the use of Esperanto. The little green star which I always carry on my person elicited the attention of a Russian officer, who, facing right up to me, asked me what I wanted. I told him that the whole Austrian army had been defeated in Galicia, as reported in the news, and that the French had reached the Rhine. When I told him there was truth in it, he was very surprised.'

"Thanks to this officer I received excellent treatment. The little green star, which I always carry on my person elicited the attention of a Russian officer, who, facing right up to me, asked me what I wanted. I told him that the whole Austrian army had been defeated in Galicia, as reported in the news, and that the French had reached the Rhine. When I told him there was truth in it, he was very surprised.'

"Later I was sent to Siberia. It was an arduous journey through the mountains. I was captured by the Russians and several Italians, and we are all able to hold conversation which is very useful. I have been greatly edified by the language and am considerably favorable to this language and that many of the officers had learned it."

"I love the way they ask your help. In the hospital and in hospital, you tell them to come to you, and to make you understand, read and write their letters, post or address them, mend their clothes, or wash their clothes. They are all so dressed as a sister, and so are sure to be useful and interested. They are very advanced, their religion is slow, ordered, inevitable; they are not afraid to tell their secret or sins, and their advance, their selflessness, their absolute optimism, and are as simple as children."

Buying At Home

I bought some rigs of Tailor Slags and paid him when I got 'em; he went with glee: "For now," said he, "I'll pay my bills, don't rot 'em." So on the run he took the tailors and paid the corner grocer, who in trade, had been a hard man, but, because the war drew closer, he made him smile, and for a while the men of traps and sages, thought cheerful thoughts, forgot the knicks, and paid their tailors wages. And Billie, back in the old days, when you up some thankless phrases; his wife was ill—the druggist's bill had worried him like blazes. The druggist cried: "Dig gone your hide, I have hole and corner to pay to see my weight of troubles." The druggist paid that, wimsey made, his first assistant, Annie, and just for luck she blew a kiss for ruler skates for gramps, and the druggist paid him back, help to lads and girls keep the country; small trouble ceased, and joy increased, and kept on mounting, mounting. You see my friend, if you shoukd spend your coin with local dealers, you're spreading the word and victory to beat the sunshine-phobes.

Dependent And Delinquent Children

We have received a copy of the 1914 annual report of the department of attorney general on "Dependent and Delinquent Children." The report is very comprehensive and gives a full account of the great work being carried on in this connection in the Province of Alberta. During the year five hundred and sixty-five children, ranging in age from two days old to boys and girls of 17 years, were placed in foster homes. Seven hundred and five applications have been received; and of this number the percentage which have been necessarily turned down is less than 10 per cent. It is now generally understood that children are not available for adoption unless they be of exceptionally good character. The problem of finding homes for these children is a difficult one, as there have been more homes for children than there are children to supply. Shelters are located at Edmonton, Medicine Hat, Calgary and Lethbridge. During the year 1914, the shelter for children placed after no less than $8200 of children, of which 486 were sent from the city of Edmonton and 411 from side points. Calgary shelter took after 560 children, 131 of whom came from the city of Lethbridge. The Lethbridge shelter 74 children have been handled, 65 of whom were from points outside the city. The shelter at Medicine Hat is in course of construction and will soon be ready for occupancy. It will have accommodation for about forty children.

Lo, The Poor Labor Man

It seems almost pitiable that there are men so narrow that they believe the laboring man is not an equal but is an ineffectual human atom who must be protected in kindly manner by the tender care and patronage of big (?) souled prohibitionists. The Prohibition people who brought out the Liquor Act admit that they have done so chiefly to protect the labor man who cannot protect himself. To the one who knows the labor men this is an insult. In the labor classes of today there are men of at least as high intelligence and broad charity as any of those who futhered this Liquor Act.

The temperance people say that with the adoption of this Act there will come an unprecedented era of prosperity for the worker. They do not say how. They do not say that it will increase the income of the working government by nearly $300,000 and will pay 1,800 bartenders on the streets. When asked about these things they admit them, wave their hands and go off on some statement regarding prohibition or the demon, or the monster or some other choice mouthful.

The labor men of today want facts. The facts of the weaknesses and injustices of the Liquor Act are so apparent that one reading will show them all. It is honeycombed with unpracticalities, and with loopholes for the illegal trafficker. It devotes all of Clause 44 to protection of that choice citizen, the "volunteer informer." It practically declares that it will not only stand for sneaks but it will even encourage them in underhand methods. Clause 44 is a clause worth reading.

It says that when an information is drawn up charging any person with violating the Act it will not be necessary to state more than that the law was broken, not requiring to know quantity or kind of liquor. It states further that it also is not necessary to state the name of the person who bought the liquor, sold it, or gave it to the accused. The law is a spider against the Canadian Society through the gullibility of the people of the Dominion. The English in France, the French in Canada, are filled with sick and wounded Canadian soldiers and as the convalescent soldiers leave for further duty and honor at the front, their place is immediately taken by some wounded courage.

These men are our own sons and brothers and in their anything to do with the liquor they are to be pitied. What are they doing for us? We are living in comfort and enjoying our peaceful pursuits in this land, while they are bearing the brunt of battle and taking part in the most inhuman war that the nations of the world have ever engaged in. No doubt in the few moments following this article you may be going to the front door of your house and loved ones far across the ocean. Well, might you say, "I am giving my life for you. What are you doing for me?"

It is for everyone in this country to do for himself or herself. What am I doing for my country at this time? The blood of the best has been shed and we may be in a trap and we are to be led to the gallows by the greater army, self sacrifice and patriotism. All donations or supplies may be sent to the provincial branches or to the head office, 17 King Street, East, Toronto. Do not delay one hour but DO IT NOW.

TAILORED SUITS TO MEASURE

BY SPECIALIZED TEAM WORK SUITS ARE MADE IN FOUR DAYS

In One Year Semi-Ready Shops Tailored Half-a-Million Worth of Clothes to Special Order

"The growth of the Special Order industry in semi-ready tailoring is evidenced by the fact that in just five years we have grown from $100,000 per cent. a wonderful increase. "Special tailoring is a specialty. Orders are made to measure and in full. Tailors are given the full time to do the work. It is a clause that appeals not to workmen of westerners.—Advt.

These can only be done if we re-lease the equipment to the people of the community. There should be one tailor, however small, that has a Red Cross branch working each and every day for the cause. Funds are needed all the time for the purchase of supplies and the upkeep of the hospitals on the continent and in England. Surgical and medical supplies are needed in enormous quantities and there is needed for the purchase of these. Hospital requirements, such as blankets, spreads, pillow cases, towels, wash cloths, etc., are needed and socks are wanted in their thousands.

With the splendid assistance of the press of Canada our appeals are able to reach every quarter of the land. Those who read these lines are to be pitied. They are led to believe that the war is over. What is the best we can do for the Red Cross? We are to be pitied. They are to be led to the gallows by the greater army, self sacrifice and patriotism. All donations or supplies may be sent to the provincial branches or to the head office, 17 King Street, East, Toronto. Do not delay one hour but DO IT NOW.

Tran work, efficiency and system in handling the service as certain as the use of an effective train.

Frank Happenings

Mrs. T. Longworth left here on Tuesday evening for Medicine Hat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan, returned to their ranch at Burns on Monday, spending a few days there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jepson went to Burns on Wednesday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. Wardman.

Walter Miller, of Bellevue, arrived back from the old country on Saturday morning last and took part in the game for Frank against Bellevue, thus showing his lasting interest in the Frank team and the game.

Rev. W. T. and Mrs. Young, and Rev. T. Hart left on Monday for Claresholm to attend the Methodist District meeting. From Claresholm the former proceeded to Edmonton to attend the Alberta Methodist conference.

Frank and Bellevue played their return game at Frank on Saturday. Owing to the patriotic meeting being on at Bellevue the attendance at the game was small. Frank was considerably handicapped through having to fill up shortages on the Bellevue team and Bellevue won by 3 to 1.

Colman will play at Frank on Saturday, May 29th. Kick-off at 6 p.m. This will be another good game as each team seems to be improving up the other for the coming league games which will probably take place on June 5th and 19th. The winners of these two dates will play the final with the British Columbian winners July 3rd for the league cup and medals.

Frank journeyed to Coleman on Monday to play an exhibition game at the sports. Both teams were strongly represented. The game started before a good crowd of enthusiastic spectators, quite a number making the journey from Frank, Bellevue and Claresholm to see the game. The game was unusually fast. Coleman through a little misjudgment, succeeded scoring the first goal after fifteen minutes play, but Frank put pressure on and Jordan, center forward, put on three goals in fifteen minutes, putting Frank in the lead. Colman added a second goal, the latter part of the second half, but could not draw level, and Frank was declared winner by 3 to 2 after a good clean game. Considering the condition of the Coleman ground, we venture to say that Monday's game was one of the best seen on the Coleman enclosure for some time. K. Teunis had charge of the game.

Several Bellevue footballers assisted Frank in the game played with Coleman at Coleman on Victoria Day.

John and George Hutton, who had been on a holiday to the old home in Scotland, returned to camp again on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, who had been visiting their old home in Yorkshire, England, returned to camp this week. The Germans could not grab Walter.

Rev. F. T. and Mrs. Cook left camp on Monday to attend the Methodist district meeting at Claresholm and the Alberta conference at Edmonton.

The local football team journeyed to Frank for that long expected return game. The game was a good one and the Bellevue boys put it over on Frank to the tune of 3 to 1. Not bad for a team like Bellevue's.

A slight fire occurred at the wash-house on Tuesday night, the origin of which is so far a mystery. A row of lockers were burned with all their contents, and quite a number of miners lost their clothes.

Colin Macleod has been re-elected president of the Macleod Conservative Association.

The bachelors and beneficiaries played baseball on the Bellevue grounds on Wednesday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the beneficiaries. Melody is closing.

Cowley Happenings

H. D. Macmillan and daughter spent last week end in Macleod.

Monday was Victoria Day, and everything but the telephones was quiet.

"Pugs" Thompson and Jack Baker went to the creek last week and en- listed.

Did the boys play ball on Saturday night? They did, and the score was 6 to 9 in Cowley's favor.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean were visitors to Pincher Creek on Friday to say "farewell" to their son Sandy.

We are sorry to learn that J. Keen has undergone an operation, in consequence of his recent accident.

Miss Cecil Joyce, of Pincher Creek, was a visitor to Cowley on Saturday, the guest of Mrs. W. C. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson teaching staff, was a visitor in town for a few days, spending Victoria Day with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson went to Pincher Creek on Thursday last to spend a day or two with their sons before their departure for the big camp at Claresholm.

We wondered and wondered what caused the smile that wouldn't come off the face of Mr. Morrison; but the sequel is out—the stock has been at his house and out a son and a heir. Both mother and son are in good health.

J. H. Rammeyer, of Scotland, arrived in Cowley on Saturday morning, much to the surprise of his few relatives who knew nothing of his coming. He is on a prolonged visit to his daughter, Miss Minnie Rammeyer, and other relatives and friends.

The Women's Institute met as usual on Saturday evening, regular business, not a very small meeting, with great interest. A number did not come on account of the heavy rain caused by the delay on the line by the rain. The members were surprised that no more parcels of seed and other articles were sent in response to their request of a few weeks ago.

As this is a most urgent call, we say over again that we are still in need of seed, lines, towels, aprons, and other articles, such as pins, ploughs, little dresses, mackintoshes, light-downs or anything else that is past wearing, to send them in before next meeting day, so that we may be in position to help the most urgent front line.

It is a great help to us when we are seeking for seed, lines, towels, aprons, and other articles, such as pins, ploughs, little dresses, mackintoshes, light-downs or anything else that is past

Sunday was a most beautiful day after the rain on Saturday. Some of the boys who left Pincher Creek for the Crows' Nest Reserve. They had to march from the creek to the station, and carry their equipments. Some of them looked very tired, but all were in good spirits and were looking quite fresh.

One new recruit was practically all in. They were headed by the band, which played many selections. Supper was served at the station, and some of the boys who had been marching all day were very tired, but all were in good spirits and were looking quite fresh.
